2019 FALL TERM SINCLAIR TALKS

Wednesday, September 11, 2019  12:00 PM -1:00 PM  Building 8 Stage
The Power of Knowing Multiple Languages
Presented by Dr. Derek Petrey and Professor Gwen McNeal

12:00 PM – 12:30 PM  Why Learn a Foreign Language?
  Join Dr. Derek Petrey as he teaches you how to flip your thinking on foreign languages!
  Learn secrets about global citizenship and the power that language knowledge unlocks.

12:30 PM – 1:00 PM  ASL Club & ASL Honor Society
  Join Professor McNeal as she discusses the financial implications of being an independent practitioner, including invoicing, billing, taxes, and mileage.

Thursday, September 19, 2019  12:30 PM -1:30 PM  Building 8 Stage
Be Bold: Listen for Common Ground*
Presented by Robert Leonard

The International Listening Association will celebrate the 4th annual International Day of Listening on Thursday, September 19, 2019. JOIN US as we discuss ways to listen first for similarities and how our common ground can be used to have better discussions about our differences.

Wednesday, September 25, 2019  12:30 PM – 1:30 PM  NW Library Loggia
Communicating Globally: How Knowing a Second Language Can Benefit Your Career and Relationships*
Presented by Connie Zornes-Padovani, Owen Jones, and Bahar Hartmann

JOIN US for an interactive presentation about the advantages of knowing a second language in today’s global economy.

Thursday, October 03, 2019  11:30 AM – 12:30 PM  NW Library Loggia
Finances: Give Yourself Credit*
Presented by the Financial Literacy Committee featuring author Jackie Cummings Koski

All about credit scores! Join the Financial Literacy Committee and Jackie Cummings Koski, author of Money Letters 2 My Daughter, as they discuss tips about starting and keeping good credit.

* Additional resources provided by the Sinclair Library
2019 FALL TERM SINCLAIR TALKS

Wednesday, October 09, 2019 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM  NW Library Loggia

National Coming Out Day*
Presented by Larry Lindstrom and Professor Kara Brown

Join Larry Lindstrom, Student Affairs LGBTQ+ Liaison, Professor Kara Brown, and a panel of guests as they discuss the importance of National Coming Out Day and ways we can best support the LGBTQ+ community.

Wednesday, October 16, 2019 11:00 AM – 12:00 PM  Building 8 Stage

Working with Deaf-Blind Individuals
Presented by Professor McNeal and Zach Holler

Join Professor McNeal and Zach Holler as they discuss tips for working alongside those in the Deaf-Blind Community. They will share experiences, strategies, techniques, and ideas on how to support a strong working relationship.

Wednesday, November 06, 2019 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM  Building 8 Stage

Media and Civility – What You Need to Know
Presented by Jessica Graue and AJ Owen

11:00 AM – 11:30 AM  Journalism Matters

Journalism has been hitting hard times recently with people’s perceptions of the media. Join Professor Graue as she discusses the importance of media and its place in democracy.

11:30 AM – 12:00 PM  6+3=9, but so does 8+1

We live in a world today that appears to be completely polarized, where it seems like people argue about everything; politics, religion, sports, even the color of a certain dress. Join AJ Owen as he discusses Dr. P.M. Forni’s “8 Rules for Living a Civil Life” and how these rules can be used when one encounters a person who has a different set of beliefs than their own.

* Additional resources provided by the Sinclair Library
2019 FALL TERM SINCLAIR TALKS

Thursday, November 14, 2019 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM Building 8 Stage

Managing Relationships
Presented by Eric Henderson and the Green Dot Team

11:00 AM – 11:40 AM Healthy and Unhealthy Relationships

Healthy relationships help us feel good about ourselves. So why do many people end up in unhealthy relationships? Attend this workshop and you will learn about healthy and unhealthy relationships, signs to look for in relationships, and how to manage problems in healthier ways.

11:40 AM – 12:00 PM Green Dot

JOIN US as we discuss ways everyone can help reduce interpersonal violence at Sinclair. No one has to do everything, everyone has to do something – learn how you can make a positive impact within our community through this interactive presentation.

Wednesday, November 20, 2019 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM Building 8 Stage

Campus Resources*
Presented by Dr. Dawayne Kirkman, Amy Hartman, Lucy Salgado, and Katherine Gonzalez

11:30 AM – 11:50 AM Sinclair C.A.R.E.S

Join Amy Hartman and Dr. Dawayne Kirkman as they discuss the importance of Student Affairs and the many support services for students offered through the division.

11:50 AM – 12:10 PM How Student Parents Can Succeed

Join Mini University as they highlight the services and resources provided by the early childhood education center and its benefits to Sinclair’s youngest scholars (preschool students). Discover financial resources through grants and other funding options that provide affordable high-quality child care to Sinclair students.

12:10 PM – 12:30 PM Sinclair’s Scholarship Landing Page

JOIN US as we learn about the many financial aid opportunities available to Sinclair students; how to apply for scholarships through the www.sinclair.edu/scholarships landing page and how to apply for external scholarships.

* Additional resources provided by the Sinclair Library
Puppies on Campus
Presented by Health Sciences Career Community and Sinclair Vet Tech

Take a break during final exam week to join us and the puppies from 4 Paws for Ability. Participants will be asked to sign a waiver to visit with the puppies.