Professor Garnett McDonough served as an esteemed faculty member of the Business Technologies Division at Sinclair Community College from 1974 through 2002. She was an outstanding, dedicated teacher and chairperson of the Legal Assisting, Law, and Real Estate departments, who served as a mentor and role model to all of her students, faculty, and staff in the Business Technologies Division.

During her 28-year tenure, Garnett McDonough served as Chair of Legal Assisting, Law, and Real Estate Departments within the Business Technologies Division. She served as Acting Dean, provided leadership for Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP) approval for the Business Technologies Division and served on many division and collegewide committees including Division Merit, Collegewide Merit, Search Committees, Wage and Fringe Benefits, and various technology committees.

Garnett developed the two-year degree program in Legal Assisting, one of the first in the area, assisted in securing approval from the Ohio Board of Regents, and secured American Bar Association approval for the program, the first in the area. Garnett developed and chaired the Program Advisory Committee and secured scholarships and grants to benefit Legal Assisting students.

For her work in web development and training Garnett was recognized as Innovator of the Year. She was known as a campus leader in web development who assisted numerous faculty in developing online courses providing both educational and technological help.

Garnett has been generous with her time and talents providing community service, including serving as president to the League of American Wheelman, a national organization of cyclists. She has served on the Board of Trustees of the Clark County Library, Springfield Symphony Orchestra, Park District and the state board for public libraries.

Garnett McDonough has been known for her commitment and loyalty to the college, her willingness to serve, and the enormous generosity of her time. She is most deserving of the title, Professor Emeritus.
